New Health Department For County Sought by Petition for Referendum

Proposal Will be Placed on Ballot at Fall Election

A petition bearing thousands of names of Lake County residents was presented this week to the Lake county board of supervisors asking the establishment of a county health department.

The petition was presented by members of the Lake County Coordinating council with which the Chain O' Lakes Region council has been working on the project. The council began gathering signatures last year at the time of its Sports and Home show at Lake Villa.

The proposal for the department will be placed on the election ballot at the general election in November.

Members of the council say that through the department enforcement of zoning laws and state health laws can be obtained.

The health department is one of the objects of the council along with elimination of pollution of lakes in this area.

Antioch Dairymen Win In Holstein Show at Gages Lake Yesterday

The Sunnyhill farm of Antioch and the farm of Henry Wegner and Son, Ingleside, were among the blue ribbon winners at the Black and White show (Holstein dairy cattle) in connection with the city-farm picnic at Gages lake yesterday.

Leroy Wegner of Ingleside won first in Four-H showmanship among the boys and Patricia Kerrigan, Libertyville, first for the girls.

The Sunnyhill farm was first in the junior bull calf division, senior yearling bull, two year-old cow and aged cow; second in junior get of sire (three head of exhibitors from the same bull); third in 3-year-old cow and senior heifer calf, and fifth in senior heifer calf.

Henry Wegner and Sons got third in the senior bull calf division.

The show was not as large this year but the quality was better.

Many prizes were given out in various contests conducted by the Waukegan Chamber of Commerce, and the Farm Bureau.

Gem City Carnival Shows In Antioch for Six Days No Sponsorship Announced

The new 1950 streamlined edition of Gem City shows list many new, unique and different features and attractions this season. Shows opened in Antioch Tuesday for an engagement of 6 days.

Featured on the midway is Jimmy Chavanne's "Cavalcade of Wonders", with many unusual acts, curiosities and strange people from all parts of the world. A musical revue of 12 colored singers, dancers, comedians and entertainers present several tabloid versions of popular theatre hits. Other shows and exhibits on the Gem City fun zone include a monkey race track with live performing monkeys driving mid-get cars almost like real humans.

There is a big array of thrill rides packing loads of laughs and thrills into every minute for the younger set. And for the even younger ones, the pre-teen-age group, many new miniature rides are in operation especially for their pleasure and enjoyment.

A new lighting arrangement transforms the showgrounds into a veritable fairland of color and splendor after sun down. Three giant diesel generating plants carried with the shows supply all the electric power used by this traveling "Coney Island."

Free attractions presented in the center of the midway each night is the Sky High Duo, circus aerialists. They present their daring spectacle atop slender all-steel rigging 130 feet above the ground without the aid of any safety nets.

On Saturday afternoon from 1 to 6 p. m. a special kiddies matinee will be staged at which time all rides, shows and attractions will operate for nine cents especially for the children. All children will be admitted entirely free to the midway and to "The Land of Let's Pretend" during matinee hours. Saturday and Sunday are the final two days of Gem City shows in Antioch with special performances both afternoon and night.

Thirty-nine members of these clubs will exhibit skirts, blouses, and dresses they have made; cookies they have baked and camp lore they have learned.

Salvation Army Camp Northwest of Village Opens With 225 Guests

Camp Wonderland, The Salvation Army's summer resort for the needy of Chicago, officially opened its 1950 season July 5 when 225 children and mothers arrived for a nine-day vacation. The camp is located six miles northwest of Antioch.

On the same day 125 Boy Scouts and Girl Guards from the Army's Scandinavian department arrived at Shagbark, the section of Camp Wonderland designed especially for them.

In operation for more than 25 years, Camp Wonderland has 83 buildings scattered over the rolling woodland property. Much of the thoughtfully-supervised recreation centers around the beaches on the large lake. Major Kyle Piercy, camp director, has a staff of 75 men and women.

Improvements made at the camp this season include construction of a cottage to accommodate 16 instructors and counselors, installation of hot and cold showers and automatic gas water heaters at Shagbark, 500 new beds and mattresses for the Village (mothers and children section), new sports and recreation equipment, and a resuscitator for the waterfront. Approximately 40 percent of the entire camp has been redecorated.

Before going to camp, each guest has a thorough physical examination at the Army's dispensary, 428 W. Wisconsin St. Special food and medical care are provided at the camp for those who need them. A final physical checkup is given all campers at the close of the vacation period, and the records are then forwarded to the Army clinics in Chicago so that follow-up care can be given if necessary.

Guests are chosen by the Army's Family Service department on the basis of need for a vacation, without distinction as to race, creed or color. Referrals are accepted from the city's other social agencies, and nine agencies will be well represented in the first camp period alone. Included in the first group of campers are 20 cardiac children and 20 young orthopedic patients. For the first time, two groups of 25 women, ranging in age from 61 to 79, will be guests at Camp Wonderland during the second and fourth camp periods.

A modern, well-equipped nursery in the Mothers and Babies section of the camp relieves mothers of the care of even the tiniest babies. A trained nurse is in charge and supervises preparation of individual formulas.

The Central Music Institute for approximately 100 young musicians from Illinois, Indiana, Michigan, Wisconsin, Nebraska, Iowa, Minnesota, Missouri, North and South Dakota will be held August 18-28 at the camp. Participants are selected on the basis of musical ability and advanced credits earned at other summer camps maintained by the Army in the north central states.

Bids on Sale of ATHS $700,000 Bond Issue To Be Opened July 19

Thirty-five Bidders Show Interest; Plans Nearing Completion

Sealed bids for the purchase of Antioch Township High school's $700,000 bonds for building construction will be opened Wednesday evening, July 19, T. R. Birkhead, retiring principal announced.

Thirty-five bond companies have already manifested interest in the purchase of the bonds, he said, and the board is hoping for some favorable prices.

Charles Nickle, Chicago architect, met with the school board last evening in going over plans for any possible changes before the specifications are prepared for the construction bidders.

Principal Birkhead said that while he will start his new work as superintendent of Thornton Township High school at Harvey, Ill., next week, he will return here on Wednesday night for the opening of the bids for the bonds.

He said he is leaving to his successor the selection of the librarian and a teacher to fill present vacancies.

The board last evening made out a tentative budget and has it on exhibition before adopting it.

Methodists to Conduct Evangelism Mission In September, October

Announcement was made this week that the Methodist church in Antioch will conduct an Evangelism mission during September and October as the church seeks to reach out and win many of the unchurched people in the community area. It was pointed out by the minister that a large number of people have moved into the Antioch community and have not located a church home.

The mission will include a week of special services each night in the sanctuary of the church. The special speaker will be Rev. Kermit Long, an evangelist leader of the church and the minister of the large Trinity Methodist Church in Chicago. Mr. Long is a popular young people's leader. He will be the dean of the second high school camp to be held at Lake Geneva from July 16 to 23.

The mission will be preceded by a religious census which will cover the entire community area. A group of 75 to 100 people are expected to conduct the census which is being planned by the evangelism committee of the church under the chairmanship of Mr. E. W. Kufalk. The mission will also include friendly visits in the homes of people conducted by members of the local church.

Crowd There But Not Boats, At Chain O' Lakes Club's Annual Sanctioned Regatta

The crowd was there but not as many of the boats as there should have been at the inboard regatta at Fox Lake Sunday.

There were plenty of "E" Racing boats and they provided plenty of excitement, beyond that there were but two 135 cu. in. power boats and none in the 225 class.

One unlimited Hydro, a gold cup boat, My Darling, outran all others in the free-for-all.

The crowd was somewhat larger than last year and was estimated at 10,000.

The race was staged by the Chain O' Lakes Boat club.

Board Liked Lighting Plans and Price But Has No Money to Buy

Hires Engineer to Draw Up Five Year Plan of Street Paving

The village board meeting Friday night liked the plans and the price for a new lighting system for the business section presented it, but confessed it hasn't the money at present to do anything about it.

The plans submitted by Michel and Associates, Chicago, called for an expenditure of $7,500 which was considered reasonable. No money is available in the village coffers at present, however.

The board already provided for a legal expenditure for the lighting should it unexpectedly get the money, by making an appropriation.

Any action at present is up to the Lions club which is promoting the idea and has offered to bear part of the cost.

The board passed an ordinance calling for the use of $4,800 of the fuel tax money for upkeep and maintenance of arterial streets.

It employed Victor Kassel, of Elgin, as engineer to draw up a five year plan for systematic improvement of Antioch streets. This plan is required by the state.

Ed Olsen Pitches Winning Game for Antioch Sun., 7-6

Antioch came home with their fourth league victory Sunday as they outlasted Silver Lake 7-6. By virtue of its triumph and Sturtevant upset of Model Tavern the V. F. W. is now in undisputed possession of third place. The victory also enabled Antioch to even its league slate at four victories and four losses.

Ed Olsen was on the mound Sunday and won his first game of the season. He started out strong allowing but two runs and three hits and striking out six men in the first five innings. He weakened in the sixth as he was touched for four runs, on four hits, but settled down to preserve the win.

Batting honors for the day were fairly well distributed. Olsen collected a double and a single to drive in one run. Schneider drove out two singles, one of which accounted for Antioch's first run. Bob Risch and Ray Wells came through with timely singles in the fifth to drive in two runs each.

The relief pitching of Hank Faber was the highlight of Silver Lake's play. He pitched the last four innings, blanking Antioch with but a lone infield safe.

Antioch started its scoring with two runs in the first inning. Then followed with one in the third and finished with a four run surge in the fifth.

Silver Lake pushed two runs across in the fourth and four in the sixth but were held in check in the last three innings.

No league contests are scheduled for next Sunday because of the district tournament at Burlington. The locals may have a non-league tilt although arrangements are not yet complete.

New Plant at Lake Bluff To Create Jobs for 500 Starting Next December

The new Deepfreeze refrigerator plant, being built at Lake Bluff, Ill., 2½ miles south of the present North Chicago home freezer plant, will be completed on Dec. 1, 1950, according to L. J. Sorensen, vice-president and general manager of the Deepfreeze Appliance Division, Motor Products Corporation.

The new refrigerator plant is a continuation of our expansion policy, following the completion of a $5,000,000 refrigerator parts plant recently completed in Marion, Ohio," the Deepfreeze executive said.

When the new 234,000 square foot plant is completed it will employ 500 people. It will be devoted strictly to the manufacture and assembly of Deepfreeze refrigerators. The Austin Company, Cleveland and Chicago, are the architects and construction engineers.

Deepfreeze Home Freezers will continue to be manufactured at the North Chicago, Ill., plant. Administrative offices will also be maintained in North Chicago.

Learning How To Eat

Collier's recently featured a series of articles called "Everyman's Meat: The Heart of An Industry." The gist of the first article was that man, after thousands of years, is finally learning how to eat properly, and that meat researchers are showing him how.

New discoveries indicate that before long our life expectancy may rise to the amazing figure of 85, said the Collier's article, "to the fact that we are developing a diet that will maintain our health and well-being into old age."

"This is the age of protein, as 10 years ago we were in the age of the vitamin and a decade or so before that in the age of the calorie. Man, in other words, is learning . . . how to fuel the marvelous machine that is the human body; and in the forefront of teaching him is the meat industry."

Some of the new discoveries will seem revolutionary to many people. For instance, science has disproven the old idea that all meats are bad for small children. Research has proved that babies can utilize the nutrients in meats, and that in some cases even premature babies may be fed meats. The protein and other values that meats provide are necessary to the normal growth and development of the child. The meat industry—on which, incidentally, some 30,000,000 people are economically dependent, not including those in the restaurant business—is emerging as one of our greatest national assets.

A Two-Way Street

We cannot rehabilitate Europe, the East, or any other section of the world by simply pouring out dollars. True rehabilitation can be attained only by helping to place the needy nations on a sound and productive economic basis. That was the idea of General Marshall when, as Secretary of State, he made his famous speech at Harvard in which the basis of his plan was first laid down.

One of the major economic problems of the world is that our exports now far exceed our imports. Under these conditions, the gold and dollar credits of the nations flow inexorably toward our shores. And soon—as happened in England—the money just runs out, and new crises inevitably follow.

International trade is a two-way street. If we are to sell abroad, without impoverishing our customers, we must buy from abroad. Something resembling an even balance of trade must be reached. This is, as everyone knows, an exceedingly difficult problem. The adjustments will be many and hard. But, in the long pull, it is the only salvation for those nations which look to us for leadership and assistance—even as it is the only way to cement the military alliance of the Western world. A country which is economically hungry cannot be strong militarily.

The Marshall Plan, and the related policies, will succeed or fail in offering a market for the products and resources of other nations even as they offer a market for ours. We will not long be able to sell if we do not buy. And, from the selfish point of view, a breakdown in international trade would have the most serious adverse effect on our employment and production, and our economy as a whole.

The Low Down From Hickory Grove

No difference where you live—Delaware to Nevada—your town or county has a problem. And 9 times out of 10, it is the water supply, the sewers, the schools—always more bonds and debt. And always, somebody claiming mismanagement—somebody claiming political favor being handed out. And, sometimes, if you look close, the guys are right—there is something in the woodpile.

So, my deduction is, if we are to avoid more and more debt, we gotta reduce the number of places where Govt. and politics can barge in and take a hand at management—or mismanagement.

When the gas mains or the light wires or the water system is in private hands, you have gas, and light, and water. And the gas company and the electric company and the water company provide the bonds—they pay their way in taxes, and you don't worry about shortages, or more local bonds and debt, even if your home town is growing by leaps and bounds.

I am not "agin" the Govt.—I am "agin" the Govt., city or town fumbling around in business ventures. To decide if you are on my side or vice versa, figure it out if you think the Govt. could take over and run the business you are in, as good or better or worse than you can run it your ownself. Let me know.

Yours with the low down,
 JO SERRA

It Can Take 17 Months

Discharging a government employee is a long and expensive process requiring an average of 7 months (in one case, 17) the Hoover Commission found. Hiring a worker also takes costly months. But 500,000 employees voluntarily resign their government jobs every year. The Commission found that major agencies have one personnel worker for every 78 employees... that it required 14 man-years and $50,000 to reduce by 2,000 the staff of one agency. The Civil Service Commission is over-centralized and cumbersome, says the Hoover Report, and there is often failure to get the right man or woman into the right job. The pay for some jobs is too high, for others it is too low. The Hoover Commission recommended less centralization, establishment of better pay standards, better administration. Legislation to put these recommendations into effect is before Congress now. Only the force of American public opinion can stimulate action for a better government at a better price.

Baby's First Steps

Doiting parents often try to rush the walking process by holding baby's arms and guiding him. This isn't wise. Premature walking may keep tiny legs from straightening shape, and thus encourage bow-out from their originally curved legs. A heavy child should not be urged to walk until he's ready for the ordeal himself. Try simple foot exercises to develop muscles strong and firm enough to bear the weight of the body.

Hatteras Lighthouse

The tallest lighthouse in the U.S. is at Cape Hatteras, North Carolina 194 feet. It is in a state park on the famed Outer Banks, now accessible by land, sea and air.

Lumber Imports

Imports of spruce lumber in 1949 totaled 531 million board feet, Douglas fir 259 million board feet, pines of various species 239 million board feet, and fir and hemlock mixed, 204 million board feet.

Steel Payroll

Iron and steel payrolls in the past decade have risen more rapidly than employment. The number of wage earners in the past two years has been approximately one-quarter larger than in 1939, rising from about 400,000 to 500,000. The payroll for these workers has more than doubled, however, climbing from $650,000,000 to above $1.6 billion.

Sleeplessness

Many insomniacs have a negative attitude toward sleep. They are afraid that when they get to bed they won't be able to get to sleep, so they don't. If they would adjust their mental attitudes, and not worry about not sleeping, they might not have any trouble at all—unless their bedding has seen its best days.

Hand grenades were used by U. S. Marines who served under John Paul Jones during the Revolution.

Pepper

Pepper amounts to about 55 per cent of the total spice production. Both black and white varieties come from the same plant, botanically the Piper nigrum. To make black pepper, the berry is picked before ripening and ground whole. For the milder white pepper, the berry is permitted to ripen, and its outer husk is removed before grinding.

Alaskan Highway Offers Many Thrills for U. S. Rough-it Vacation Drivers

The 1500 mile trip up the Alaskan highway is helping to create a new body of long-distance, "rough-it" vacation drivers, the Touring Bureau of the Chicago Motor Club reports.

Last year 5,192 automobiles drove the Highway. From indications thus far, the number is expected to increase considerably this year.

Dawson Creek in British Columbia, about 500 miles north of the U. S. boundary, is the official gateway to the Alaska Highway. A signpost has been erected here marking Mile 0 on the highway. Fairbanks, Alaska, is at the other end of 1,523 miles of wilderness.

The road is gravelled but, with modern construction, easy grades and good sight distances, an average of 250 miles per day is possible, the motor club touring bureau says.

The trip offers spectacular scenery. Teslin Lake at Mile 804 winds for 85 miles between towering cliffs. The drive along the north side of the great St. Elias range furnishes views of exceptional beauty. At Fort Nelson the highway curls through the most northerly extension of the Rocky Mountain range.

Fishing is unexcelled in these northern waters and moose, deer and bear are in abundance for the pleasure of big game hunters.

The entire route was surveyed last year, the motor club says. Services and accommodations were found good, although motorists are cautioned that it is still a trip to be made only by persons in good physical condition.

The highway was built during the war as a defense measure and cost $113,824,220. Its construction employed 18,000 men.

Farm Work Progresses

Warm temperatures and sunshine the first half of this week gave farmers in this area opportunity to put up a lot of hay and to cultivate their corn. Cold weather and rain retarded the corn somewhat and most of it was not knee high by July 4. It is now, however, and growing nicely although unevenly. Wheat is ripening and it won't be long until the combine and the reaper will be in action.

Want to Know all About Atomic Weapons? Uncle Sam Tells at $1.25 a Copy

A description of just what happens when an atomic bomb explodes will soon be available to the public in an official Government document now being printed at the Government Printing Office. Entitled "The Effects of Atomic Weapons," the book will be released about August 1, and advance orders may now be placed with the Superintendent of Documents, Washington 25, D. C., at $1.25 per copy. All proceeds from the sale go to the Government.

Of primary interest to persons engaged in civilian defense and the building trades, the book contains previously unpublished details on atomic explosions. The damage caused by the atomic bombs in Japan is examined with estimates of the probable effects on American cities. The types of buildings which best withstand the shock and the hazards of various radiations are described and illustrated.

The book was prepared by the Atomic Energy Commission from non-confidential scientific and technical information. It is the most informative and authoritative book on atomic weapons which can be made public and is the most significant document to be published since the Smythe Report.

Lake County Reaches 91 Per Cent of Quota in Sale of Savings Bonds

Five Illinois Counties have reached their quota in the U. S. Savings Bonds Drive which began May 15. Arnold J. Rauen, State Director, U. S. Treasury Savings Bonds Division for Illinois, said in Chicago that Brown, Edwards, Hardin, Putnam and Wayne Counties had passed their "E" Bond quotas.

Lake County people have invested $803,265 in Savings Bonds through June 24, Rauen said. This is 91% of the County quota of $883,000. The intensive part of the Drive ends July 4. All Bonds sold through July 17 will be counted in the Drive. The extra time is allowed for reporting.

Through June 24, Illinois people saved $34,606,883, 61.7% of the state's $56,046,000 quota.

Visitors to Springfield may now view the Liberty Bell replica, symbol of the Savings Bonds drive. The replica is scheduled to be presented to the State in ceremonies Wednesday, July 5, by Vernon L. Clark, Assistant Secretary of the Treasury, representing Secretary of the Treasury Snyder. Gov. Stevenson is scheduled to accept. It will be displayed in the Hall of Flags, Centennial Building.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

The subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, July 16, will be:

LIFE

The Golden Text is:

"The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear? The Lord is the strength of my life; of whom shall I be afraid?" (Ps. 27: 1)

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon, the following are from the Bible:

"See, I have set before thee this day life and good, and death and evil; In that I command thee this day to love the Lord thy God, to walk in his ways, and to keep his commandments and his statutes and his judgments, that thou mayest live and multiply. . . . That thou mayest love the Lord thy God, and that thou mayest obey his voice, and that thou mayest cleave unto him: for he is thy life, and the length of thy days" (Deut. 30: 15, 20).

The Lesson-Sermon includes the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy:

"Life is divine Principle, Mind, Soul, Spirit. . . . God is divine Life, and Life is no more confined to the forms which reflect it than substance is in its shadow. If life were in mortal man or material things, it would be subject to their limitations and would end in death. Life is Mind, the creator reflected in his creations. . . . Because Life is God, Life must be eternal, self-existent. Life is the everlasting I AM, the Being who was and is and shall be, whom nothing can erase" (pp. 468, 331, 289).

Insurance Companies Urge National Clamp Down on Speeding, Drunken Driving

In a united effort to halt a rapidly rising increase in fatal automobile accidents, Illinois has been asked to join the 47 other states in a nation-wide crackdown on speeding and drinking motor vehicle operators.

A letter has been sent to Governor Adlai E. Stevenson by J. Dewey Dorsett, general manager of the Association of Casualty and Surety Companies, in New York, officially transmitting a strongly worded resolution which was adopted by the executive committee of that organization, appealing to all of the states, municipalities and counties in the country to enforce laws governing motor vehicle speeds and driving while under the influence of liquor.

Declaring that speeding and the use of alcoholic beverages are the primary causes of highway accidents, the resolution cites the National Safety Council as authority for the statement that deaths due to motor vehicle accidents rose 11 percent during the first four months of this year over the corresponding period in 1949. It further pointed out that two-thirds of all such fatalities occurred on rural highways, where excessive speeds are far easier than in crowded urban streets.

A copy of that resolution has been sent out to the governors of all of the states and the mayors of all cities above 10,000 population. Copies also will be sent to the governing bodies of all counties in the country. The gravity of the situation is indicated by the fact that this is the first time the Association of Casualty and Surety Companies, which speaks for 81 insurance companies representing millions of policyholders, has ever taken official action on such a public issue. The Association maintains one of the country's outstanding safety organizations.

The resolution, in part, follows: "The Executive Committee of the Association of Casualty and Surety Companies observes with deep concern the latest figures of the National Safety Council regarding fatal motor vehicle accidents and their causes. For the first four months of the current year, deaths total 980 more than for the comparable period of 1949—an increase of 11%. Furthermore, each month has shown a greater percentage increase than the preceding month—in April 17% more than April 1949.

"Of particular concern is the situation in the rural areas of the country where year by year the number of fatalities is rising. In 1948, the first full year following termination of gasoline rationing and federally restricted speed limits, there were 21,020 fatalities due to motor vehicle accidents on rural highways. In 1949, there were 22,400 approximately two-thirds of all fatal highway accidents.

"These statistics alone should be sufficient to alarm every person in the United States, but their causes as reported by the National Safety Council are even more alarming because they indicate a lack of uniform and adequate law enforcement which in time may become a menace to the security of the nation itself. A speed violation, says the National Safety Council, was involved in 1 out of every 3 fatal accidents in 1949. Further, the Council reports that in the event of an accident at 65 miles per hour, the chance of someone being killed is 1 in 6, as compared to 1 in 16 at 45 miles per hour. It should further be repeated that two-thirds of all fatalities occur on rural highways where speed unquestionably is greater than in cities.

"In 1948, we are again informed by the National Safety Council, reports from 22 states reveal that over 17% of the drivers involved in fatal accidents had been drinking and that 23% of the adult pedestrians involved in such accidents also had been drinking. Over the nation as a whole, 25% of the motor vehicle drivers or pedestrians involved in fatal accidents were reported to have been drinking. Approximately 12% of the drivers who were found violating traffic laws in 1948 were under the influence of alcohol at the time.

"Surely the time has come for state, county and municipal officials to recognize that excessive speed and the use of alcoholic beverages by drivers are the primary causes of motor vehicle accidents on our highways and take firm action to enforce the laws which prescribe safe speed limits for given highway conditions and forbid the operation of a motor vehicle by any person who is under the influence of an intoxicating beverage. We feel that it is our duty both as citizens and as representatives of capital stock casualty insurance companies which write a majority of the automobile liability insurance in this country to appeal to the appropriate public officials and urge upon them the strict enforcement of the law without fear or favor.

"That this statement of facts and resolution be brought to the attention of the National Committee for Traffic Safety, composed of 85 national organizations interested in the highway problem and that that body be urged to encourage its constituent members to join in this effort through a program of voluntary law observance on the part of their individual members.

"That the Association cooperate with state, municipal and county authorities in a common effort to fulfill the purposes of this resolution.

"That the legislative bodies of the various states consider the advisability of increasing the personnel of state police and highway patrol forces in order to assure more adequate policing of the rural highways and thereby protect the public against lawless motor vehicle operators."

ID Cards Still Available For Veterans at Waukegan

There are still some "ID" cards available at the offices of the Illinois Veterans Commission.

Illinois veterans who find it difficult remembering their social security, insurance, and claim numbers will find the "ID" cards (identification) a real help when filling for benefits or checking on a claim.

The cards issued by the IVC provide a ready reference in times of emergency and are small enough to be carried in a wallet or purse.

In Lake county veterans can secure their "ID" card at the IVC office located at 228 North Genesee St., in Waukegan.

First of the Fine Cars in Value

This one Telescopes your Timetable

OF course you recognize it.

Who doesn't know that those four Ventiports, that graceful sweep of fender-chrome, mark ROADMASTER—best of all the Buicks, unquestioned "big buy" of the fine-car field?

But have you tried it?

Have you matched this sweet-stepping bonny against the tall hills, and the call of the straight-away?

Ever toiled it across town—and seen how Dynaflo's quick surge and smooth take-off slip you through traffic with minimum of foot-motion and maximum of timesaving?

Ever known the good feel of a light and easy wheel, swinging almost at a finger's touch—the soul-satisfying lift in a big 152-hp Fireball engine just waiting for the release your toe-pressure gives it?

Ever sampled that famous Buick ride—steady, level, unperturbed, soft with the special gentleness of coil springs on all four wheels, sweetly restful in both front and rear seats?

There's no reason, really, to wait longer for such satisfying experience.

There's a Buick dealer near you. He delights in showing off ROADMASTER. He'll arrange—unless all his demonstration cars have been snatched away from him by eager buyers—to put you behind a ROADMASTER wheel.

Why not see him now—to find out what's finest in today's fine cars, and how little it takes to buy one?

Only BUICK has
and with it goes:

HIGHER-COMPRESSION Fireball valve-in-head power in three engines. (New F-263 engine in SUPER models.) • NEW PATTERN STYLING, with MULTI-GUARD forefront, taper-through fenders, "double bubble" taillights • WIDE-ANGLE VISIBILITY, close-up road view both forward and back • TRAFFIC-MANIPULATING, less over-all length for easier parking and garaging, short turning radius • EXTRA-WIDE SEATS cradled between the axles • SOFT BUICK RIDE, from all-coil springing, Safety-Ride rims, low-pressure tires, ride-steady-ing torque-tube • WIDE ARRAY OF MODELS with Body by Fisher.

Standard on ROADMASTER, optional on other Buick models.

FOUR-WAY FOREFRONT

This rugged front end (1) sets the style note, (2) saves on repair costs—vertical bars are individually replaceable, (3) avoids "locking horns," (4) makes parking and garaging easier.

For Emergencies

It pays to keep a pad of sterile gauze around the barn or stable, for emergency use on wounds and cuts in animals.

Soil Blowing

Where soil blowing is a definite problem, summerfallow should be worked in strips. On sloping land contour strips are advisable.

"The ad read: 'Wanted—a magnetic personality.' So now I'm an engineer on Soo Line iron ore trains."

Hauling ore from the iron ranges—electric irons to housewives—it's all in the day's work for the Soo Line. For Upper Midwest shippers depend upon the Soo Line to "iron out" their transportation problems—speed their products to you.

Yes, whether you're shipper or consumer, with one iron in the fire or many, the Soo Line works for you.

NEW CHRYSLER IMPERIAL

Newest addition to the Chrysler line is the luxury-styled Imperial sedan shown here. The long, low appearance of the new model is accentuated by the massive wrap-around "Clearbase" rear window, first introduced in the Chrysler Division's "hardtop" models. Rich interiors combine with stylish body lines to give the car special distinction among 6-passenger sedans.

CUSTOMER'S CORNER

When you buy a can of food, you can't see the contents.

That is why the labels on practically all of A&P's own quality brands of fruits, vegetables and juices tell you exactly what the can contains.

We tell you the U.S. Government grade. We explain exactly what the grade means.

We list the uses for which the grade is best suited. In other words, we not only want you to get quality food at low prices at your A&P, but we want you to know in advance what you're getting for your money.

Read the labels carefully on your A&P canned foods. If the contents should ever fail to live up to our claims or your expectations, please let us know. Write:

U.S. Forest Service
During the fire season—normally from the first of June through mid-September—the 1,500 full-time field workers of the U.S. forest service are reinforced by some 5,000 seasonal employees which the forest service hires and trains each summer. These seasonal recruits serve along-side the regulars as look-outs, smoke-jumpers, or smoke-eaters.

Precious Alloys

For jewelry platinum, hardened with five to ten per cent iridium or five per cent ruthenium or palladium with five per cent ruthenium, is generally employed in the United States. Such tarnish-resistant alloys have very satisfactory mechanical properties, too.

Swine Erysipelas

Hog producers who have never had swine erysipelas on their farms can do much to keep it out by growing their own breeding gilts and by obtaining boars only from herds known to be free of this disease.

Transfusions for Dogs

Animal hospitals now make wide use of blood banks and blood transfusions in saving the lives of critically sick pets. It is less of a problem to obtain suitable blood for a dog than for a human being, because typing and cross-matching are not necessary. Whereas the human patient requires a specific type of blood that matches his own, the canine patient can be given blood from any healthy dog with practically no risk of undesirable reactions.

Pharmacists for Japan

The overseas branch of the department of the army has announced the urgent need for pharmacists in Japan. Base salaries range from $2,974.80 to $3,727.20 per annum, plus a foreign allowance of 10 per cent of base salary and free housing.

Pregnant Sows

To prevent abortions from injury, sows in the last stage of pregnancy should not be permitted to run with horses and mules or to follow fattening cattle.

GAS PRESSURE Like Rock in Stomach

One Antioch man stated that for 10 years he felt like he had a rock in his stomach due to undigested food he always had inside of him. Recently he started taking CERTA-VIN and says the feeling like a rock in his stomach disappeared the second day. Now his food agrees with him and he feels like a new man.

CERTA-VIN is taken before meals and works with your food; thus you get the fullest good out of your meals. It contains Herbs, plus vitamin B and Iron. It not only relieves gas, it also makes the nerves stronger with vitamin B and enriches the blood. Miserable people soon feel better all over. So don't go on suffering! Get CERTA-VIN—Reeves Drug Store.

William Shakespeare

We know a lot about the work of William Shakespeare, regarded by many as the greatest literary genius the world has ever known, but there is a good deal we don't know about the man. There is no record of his birthdate, no definite knowledge of his boyhood, no record of the "lost years" 1584 to 1592, and no portrait that can be regarded as an authentic likeness.

Chewing Gum Helps

If a speck of matter falls on a painted surface which is still wet, it can be removed by touching it lightly with a stick of wood tipped with a ball of fairly dry chewing gum. The speck will stick to the gum and the paint will flow together again.

Vicar of Wakefield

Oliver Goldsmith sold his immortal novel, "The Vicar of Wakefield," for $300, under very humiliating circumstances. The great Dr. Samuel Johnson went out in person to sell the manuscript of the book for Goldsmith, while the latter waited in the custody of a sheriff's officer. (The author's landlady had had him arrested for failure to pay his rent.)

Decorative Interest

Rooms that are square and uninteresting in shape can be improved by having one wall painted a color that is different from the other three. This provides a focal point of interest. If there is a fireplace in the room, the decorative interest is usually placed on the fireplace wall.

NATION WEEPS

Recalls Last War Message

NEW YORK—A little over eight years ago, May 8, 1942, to be exact, the United States suffered one of its worst defeats after a hard, bitter battle—the fall of Corregidor.

And, it was on that day that Irving Strobog, 22, a radio operator in the signal corps, sent the farewell message that made a nation weep.

Strobog was on General Wainwright's staff and knew on May 5 that surrender was only a matter of hours. He helped set up the broadcast by which surrender was arranged for the next day at noon.

Even with surrender arranged, however, the Japanese continued to attack. Then, when he had cleared all official radio traffic, Strobog began to send his own account of the surrender and moments leading up to it.

It's Haunted Now
This is what they received in Honolulu:

"We are waiting for God only knows what . . . lots of heavy fighting going on. General Wainwright is a right guy and we are willing to go for him, but shells were dropping all night faster than hell. Damage terrific. Too much for guys to take . . . Corregidor used to be a nice place, but it's haunted now . . ."

He told about the surrender broadcast and then went on: "The jig is up. Everyone is bawling like a baby. They are piling dead and wounded in our tunnel . . . I know now how a mouse feels, caught in a trap and waiting for guys to come along and finish it up . . ."

Then, as the first Japanese tank approached the tunnel from which he was sending his messages: "My name is Irving Strobog. Get this to my mother, Mrs. Minnie Strobog, 605 Barbey street, Brooklyn, New York . . . My love to Pa, Joe, She, Mac, Garry, Joyce and Paul. God bless 'em all. Hope they will be there when I come home."

"Tell Joe wherever he is to give 'em hell for us!"

Shocked Nation
That was the last message from Corregidor. Army and navy officials at Honolulu hovered over radios. But there was only silence. A month later a stunned nation wept when the last broadcast was made public.

But Irving Strobog went home to Brooklyn. In October, 1945, he went home just like he said he would. After that there was a round of publicity and welcome that upset Strobog who had spent the intervening years in a Japanese prison camp.

A regular army man, he stayed in after the war and went to Paris for a while. He later resigned to take a job in Paris.

That patchy and profane last message probably shocked the nation as much as did the attack on Pearl Harbor. That was just a little over eight years ago.

Monarchists Renew Efforts
To Put Don Juan on Throne

MADRID—The on again, off again movement to restore the Spanish monarchy has undergone a recent reorganization in an effort to speed up the restoration, it is reported.

Emissaries have been discussing ways and means of putting Don Juan de Bourbon, son of Alfonso XIII, on the throne. The move is reported to include a willingness to cooperate with liberal groups, excepting, of course, the communists. Some of the more realistic monarchists are said to wish forming a well-knit group that would forget factional quarrels and class prejudices that have hampered all past work for the restoration.

They are convinced that the only way to restore the monarchy is to cooperate with socialists, anarchists and other republican parties. These groups have agreed, it is reported, to work with the monarch until free elections can be held to settle the form of government.

One source reports that the Council of the Realm has been discussing with Generalissimo Francisco Franco some amendments to the law of succession, which covers the whole question of monarchy.

Such reports renew the speculation that Generalissimo Franco may be preparing to assume the title of regent. The possibility of such a move has made many monarchists believe it all the more imperative that they make some vigorous move for the restoration.

A strange situation exists in Spain. Ruled by a dictator, one not generally liked in the United States, Spain is legally a monarchy. For this reason the monarchists are more outspoken than other groups in the country.

When any of them are arrested for their outcries, they get far more lenient treatment than members of other parties. The court makes it clear they are not being punished because they are monarchists but because they have threatened the peace and security of the state.

SHORT STORY

Vanity
All

By Richard Hill Wilkinson

"EVERY MAN," said Inspector the Joe Warren, frowning over the letter which he held in his hand, "has a weak point. In the case of 'The Flash,' most daring criminal of this city's criminal history, it appears to be vanity."

3-Minute Fiction

"He gestured toward the letter. 'The fellow has become drunk with his success in accomplishing two outstanding robberies. And now he has taken to writing us letters, stating just where he's going to be at a certain time and what he plans to do.'"

"Detective Fargo blew smoke rings at the ceiling and evaded his chief's eyes.

"So far," he said, "he seems to have been pretty successful in carrying out his plans. This is the third letter we've received."

"Each time The Flash has appeared where he said he would at exactly the time denoted in his letters. And while we've stood idly by he's committed his crimes and escaped. What's he up to this time?"

"The Devonshire party," Warren growled. The truth of Fargo's statement scored him. "Mrs. Devonshire is planning to wear that valuable emerald her husband brought her from Europe a month ago. The Flash states in this letter that he intends to steal the emerald and defies us to stop him."

Fargo crushed out his cigaret.

"Have you taken any steps to prevent the robbery?"

"Fargo, as you know, the Flash's disguise is perfect. He'll appear at that party as a guest, or servant or someone with whom the Devonshires are but slightly acquainted. I want you to go up there early, meet Mrs. Devonshire when she comes down stairs and stick with her until the last guest has gone. Then see to it that the emerald is stored away in a safe before you leave. I'll have Johnson and a couple of other men mingling with the guests."

AT 11 O'CLOCK on the night of the Devonshire party Inspector Warren drew his roadster up before the palatial mansion and ascended the steps.

The moment the Devonshire butler opened the door Warren knew something had happened. The butler's face was white and drawn, and over his shoulder Warren could see a group of guests huddled in the hallway, with Detective Johnson standing guard.

Warren stepped quickly inside.

And at that moment Mrs. Devon-

The butler's face was white and drawn.

shire, accompanied by her husband and Detective Fargo, came flying down the stairs.

"What's happened?" Warren barked at Fargo, ignoring the incoherent babble of Mrs. Devonshire.

"It's gone," Fargo grated. "About an hour ago, I was standing behind Mrs. Devonshire in the reception line. Someone poked a gun in my back and told me to walk backwards. When I saw the fellow's face I knew it was The Flash, because he was a dead ringer for myself."

"A ringer for you?" Warren gasped. "What the devil do you mean?"

"I mean," said Fargo grimly, "that his disguise this time looked like me, generally speaking. He forced me into a closet and cracked me over the head. Naturally no one noticed that anything was happening, as Mrs. Devonshire was exhibiting her emerald at the time. And when The Flash returned and stood in my place, it occurred to no one that it was not me."

"Ten minutes ago I came to and began to kick on the door. Devonshire opened it. I rushed to Mrs. Devonshire and discovered that she had just missed her emerald. — The Flash has outsmarted us again!"

Warren slumped wearily into a chair. "Tomorrow," he groaned, "every newspaper in the city will have the story. It will be the most humiliating moment of my life."

Fargo smiled bitterly. "Every man has his weak point," he said. "Yours seems to be vanity."
